Join one of the Top 100 Universities in the world!

The Department of Family Medicine at McMaster University is seeking three full-time academic family physicians to join the department.

Would you like to be part of a dynamic clinical team?
In this role, you would be joining the McMaster Family Health Team. Named the Family Practice of the Year in 2014 by the OCPF, the McMaster FHT is comprised of two newly renovated Clinical Teaching Units, providing the full spectrum of family medicine care to over 33,000 patients in Hamilton, Ontario.

Would you like to influence the next generation of family physicians through educational leadership?
The Department of Family Medicine trains over 200 residents a year at sites across south central Ontario. We work in a comprehensive interdisciplinary setting, providing early exposure for learners to interprofessional practice and fostering an environment that supports collaboration and innovative practice for our faculty.

Are you interested in joining a department with a diverse program of academic research?
Our research division administered over $6.5 million in funding last year, in support of research programs in diverse areas such as healthy aging, polypharmacy, community paramedicine, eHealth, visual literacy, child health and development, and more.

The successful applicants must have CCFP certification and a license to practice medicine in the province of Ontario. A commitment to curiosity and innovation is essential. In addition, previous clinical or academic leadership experience and previous scholarly/academic experience with an interest in assuming educational leadership roles is desirable. One of these positions will also require the ability to provide full care obstetrics within the context of comprehensive family medicine. Academic rank and salary will be commensurate with experience.

Expressions of interest, along with a curriculum vitae, should be forwarded to:

Dr. David Price
Professor and Chair, Department of Family Medicine, Faculty of Health Sciences, McMaster University fmchair@mcmaster.ca
Fax: 905.521.5594

All qualified applicants are encouraged apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be considered first for this position. To comply with the Government of Canada's reporting requirements, the University is obliged to gather information about applicants’ status as either Permanent Residents of Canada or Canadian citizens. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or current citizenship; however, all applications must include one of the following statements: “Yes, I am a citizen or permanent resident of Canada” or “No, I am not a citizen or permanent resident of Canada”.

McMaster University is strongly committed to employment equity within its community and to recruiting a diverse faculty and staff. The University encourages applications from all qualified candidates including women, persons with disabilities, First Nations, Metis and Inuit persons, members of racialized communities and LGBTQ-identified persons. If you require any form of accommodation throughout the recruitment and selection procedure, please contact the Human Resources Service Centre at 905.525.9140 ext 22247.