

McMaster University, Department of Family Medicine Residency Program
Site Comparison Chart (Urban Centres)

|                        |                                    | Type of Practice                                 | Curriculum Structure | Number of Positions | Population | Preceptors   | Patients  | Service Areas  | Special Interests  | Practice Sites                                       | # Emerg Visits                       | # Babies Born   | Education Experience   | Program Highlight  |
|------------------------|------------------------------------|--|----------------------|---------------------|------------|--|---|--|--|--|--------------------------------------|---|--|--|
| Hamilton               | McMaster Family Practice           | teaching unit                                    | block                | 31 CMG8 IMG     | 519,949    | 13   | 16,099  | Hamilton   | Immigrant and refugee health, low risk family medicine OB, HIV, health literacy and global health                  | McMaster FHT   | HHS - 181,261/yrSJH - 112,788/yr | 3,650/yr  | Clinical pharmacists, dietitian, physiatrist, nurse practitioners, physio therapist, occupational therapists, physicians, registered practical nurses, social workers, system navigator, lactation, long term care; consulting: chiropodist, pediatrician, palliative care physician, sports medicine, legal   | Situated in the downtown core of Hamilton, at the new David Braley Health Science Centre, MFP has a diverse and varied patient population. The faculty at MFP also varied in their special interest, which include immigrant and refugee health, low risk Family Medicine OB, HIV, and global health |
|                        | Stonechurch Family Health Centre   | teaching unit                                    | block                |                     |            | 18   | 19,171  | Hamilton   | Obstetrics, women's health, care of the elderly, mental health, procedures, palliative care, sports medicine, peds | McMaster FHT   | HHS - 181,261/yrSJH - 112,788/yr | 3,650/yr  | Peds clinic, sports medicine clinic, care of the elderly, long term care, nutrition, OT/PT   | Our diverse patient population and experienced educators offer residents an appropriate balance between clinical learning and structured teaching sessions   |
|                        | Community Based Residency Training | community practices                              | block                |                     |            | 13   | 1,700-2,200   | Stoney Creek, Carlisle, Hamilton, Dundas, Burlington   | Sports medicine, medical education, women's health, procedures, care of the elderly, pediatrics                    | Stoney Creek, Carlisle, Hamilton, Dundas, Burlington | HHS - 181,261/yrSJH - 112,788/yr | 3,650/yr  | unique to each practice but includes PBSGs, nursing home visits, individual teaching, undergraduate teaching etc.  | Very strong one on one supervision and mentorship leading to an excellent continuity of care experience  |
| Brampton               | community practices                | block  | 9 CMG1 IMG       | 600,000             | 11         | FHG - 4,000 avgFHT - 20,000 avg  | Brampton, Georgetown, Etobicoke, Caledon, Woodbridge                    | Comprehensive family medicine, specialties in women's health & OB, breastfeeding, emergency medicine, hospitalist medicine, long-term care, global health, procedural skills, palliative care  | 1 FHG, 4 FHT,6 FHO   | 210,600/yr   | 8,000/yr                             | One-to-one learning, abundance of clinical and academic learning opportunities, wealth of engaged primary care and specialist teachers who are keen to share their knowledge with the next generation of physicians | Working in one of the fastest growing & most multicultural cities in the GTA, One of the busiest with over 200,000 visits per year, 3 Hospital Campuses & 5 Communities to work in, High level of Primary Care engagement in the hospital setting  |  |
| Halton                 | teaching unit/community            | block  | 7 CMG1 IMG       | 501,669             | 15         | 1,500-2,000  | Burlington, Oakville, Milton  | Obstetrics, women's health, mental health, chronic disease management, palliative care, long-term care, procedural skills, medical leadership, medical education, and quality improvement  | 3 FHT  | 166,776/yr   | 5,295/yr                             | Mix of community and centrally based clinics with rotations taking place at Oakville, Milton and Burlington hospitals   | Opportunity for adult inpatient care   |  |
| Kitchener-Waterloo     | teaching unit/community            | partially integrated                             | 16 CMG1 IMG      | 750,000             | 33         | Individual practices (800 to 2,000)Family Health Teams (20,000 to 100,000) | Kitchener, Waterloo, Wellesley, Cambridge, Guelph                       | Primary memory care, new models of primary care, primary care research, digital health & eHealth, care of the elderly  | 6 FHT, 1 FHO   | 200,000+/yr  | 7,400/yr                             | Live academic sessions in KW, including two, annual, all-day academic sessions.   | Customizable program with integrated blocks in 1st & 2nd year  |  |
| Niagara                | teaching unit/community            | R1: fully integratedR2: partially integrated | 7 CMG1 IMG       | 431,346             | 20         | 1,400-2,000  | Niagara Falls, NOTL, St. Catharines, Welland, Beamsville, Port Colborne | Men's health, women's health, sexual health, sports med, surgical assist, palliative care  | 7 FHT  | 190,000/yr   | 3,800+/yr                            | integrated curriculum, opportunities for continuity of care   | Integrated first year family medicine experience   |  |
| Grand Erie Six Nations | community practices                | block  | 5 CMG                | 135,501             | 11         | 21,000   | Simcoe, Six Nations, Paris, Waterford, Brantford, St. George            | Comprehensive family medicine, global health, emergency medicine, aboriginal health, procedurs, mental health counselling, medical education, memory clinic, palliative care, behavioural and developmental paediatrics, simulatinos, bedside ultrasound | 10 (3 are FHT)   | 51,275/yr  | 1,363/yr                             | As a smaller site with many exceptional educators, teaching is very personalized to resident interest and needs with several innovative additions to the curriculum   | Aboriginal Health experience at Six Nations, Regular simulations in dedicated Sim Lab, Bedside ultrasound curriculum, Dedicated experience in paediatric development and mental health, Specific focus on counselling in primary care, Robust resuscitation in emergency medicine, One-on-one teaching with hospitalists and not a CTU model, College exam preparation |  |